ROAD RELAY RESULTS – Hamer runs fastest time - Over 40 women win gold

Chris Hamer ran the fastest leg of the day at the road relay championships at Geelong on the weekend. Chris covered the 6.3km of the windy 3 lap course in 18:22 with no other runner on the day running faster than 18:35. Despite Chris' great performance and some good runs by the rest of our team, Box Hill finished 4th in the men's division 1 competition.

Box Hill's only gold medal for the day was won by Pia Hunter, Amanda Harper and June Petrie in the women's over 40 division. This win almost assures that Box Hill will win the premiership in this division (as long as we field a team in the last 2 events).

Thanks to Ian Sloane, Megan Sloane, Grant O'Donnell, Charmaine McNally, David Ayers and Steve Foley who helped with officiating and time keeping.
