WINTER SEASON COMING TO A CLIMAX!

As you can see from the ladders below, Box Hill has a good chance to win premierships in Men's divisions 1, 5 and 7 and in Women's divisions 1, 3 and over 40.

In many of these divisions the premiership race is likely to be decided in the next (and second last) event of the season, the half-marathon at Burnley, on Sunday morning September 6.

Could all distance runners please contact a member of the Winter Competition committee and let us know of your availability for this event.

CELEBRATING 80 YEARS OF WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Come and help celebrate 80 Years of Women's Athletics in Victoria on 15th November, 2009.

Come revel and reminisce 80 years of women's athletics in Victoria, with an afternoon tea to celebrate the formation of the Victorian Women's Amateur Athletics Association eight decades ago.

Set aside the afternoon of November 15th, schedule in a trip to the Melbourne Town Hall, and start dusting off your memorabilia.

To reserve your place, contact Elizabeth Stubbings in the AV Office (9428 8195). Tickets cost $30, and will be on sale mid-September.

Any photos, records, memorabilia or contributions to the afternoon should be directed to Ronda Jenkins (9386 5031).

CITY TO SURF

There were many fine performances by Box Hill runners in the City to Surf in Sydney last week.

Chris Hamer ran brilliantly to finish 4th in front of 70,000 other competitors. Other outstanding results include Daniel Clark 23rd, John Meagher 35th and 1st in over 40 age group, Kyle Martin-Alcaide 72th and 1st under 16, and Michael Dowel 83rd and 2nd under 18.

DIAMOND CREEK FAIR

The Diamond Creek Rotary Town fair is on again on Saturday September 12th

The Box Hill Pole Vaulters will be taking part (see Mark Stewart for details) and a 100 meter gift race is also on.

The Feature event the Mens open and Womens open race will be held at 6.15 pm with presentations on stage at 6.30pm and will attract prize monies of $500 per race.

The under age groups will be run during the day hosted by the Diamond Valley Little Aths Club. Prizes and trophies will be given to the younger ages. Entry is free.
Go to www.diamondcreektownfair.org.au for more details.

THANKS FROM HANNY

Hanny Allston is currently in Hungary competing the world orienteering championships. So far she has qualified for the middle distance final to held on Wednesday and the long distance final to be held on Sunday. She would like to thank all those who bought raffle tickets to help her raise funds to get to Europe. The lucky winner was Jim Russell from Bendigo who will take the Antarctic flight later this year.
